Legion District F Hospital Trust Fund Supports CMH

Members of the Royal Canadian Legion District F present the Campbellford Memorial Hospital Foundation with a gift of $8,200 from the District F Hospital Trust Fund. The funds were used to purchase a new Vital Signs Monitor for the Hospital. A critical tool for the Hospital. Foundation Board Members Cindy McMurray (second from right) and Bruce Thompson (third from the right) accepted the donation from (left to right) Past District Commander Don Ramsey, Zone Commander Wayne McKinnon, District Commander Lynn Deering, District F Treasurer Larry Lamble and Delayne Donald, Treasurer of the RCL Branch 103 Campbellford.

Great Gift from the Warkworth Community Service Club!

The Campbellford Memorial Hospital Foundation was honoured to receive a generous gift of $5,670 from the members of the Warkworth Community Service Club. The funds were used to support the purchase of Vital Signs Monitor. The funds were raised through the sale of the Club's Annual Cash Draw. Hospital Foundation Board Member Martha Hunt (left) is seen here accepting the donation from Club President Chuck Mills.

Fisher's No Frills Supports CMH

Campbellford Memorial Hospital Foundation Executive Director John Russell (right) accepts a generous donation from Matt and Lisa Fisher of Fisher's No Frills. The gift of $2,176 was raised during their Give Back to Your Community Campaign. The funds will support the purchase of the new Digital X-Ray Machine for the Hospital. The CMH Foundation is currently raising $600,000 during the new X-Ray Campaign.

Thank you Campbellford Lioness Club!
